27-30 MAY 2022, KUTNÁ HORA,
UNESCO World Heritage Site, Czech Republic

Are you a young professional,
PhD candidate, or an advanced MA student interested in China affairs?

Do you want to untangle and understand the current state of EU-China relations?

Are you ready for real, hands-on simulations of heated negotiations between the EU and China?

WE WANT YOU!

WHAT TO EXPECT?

- Exclusive sessions with leading experts on China-Europe relations
- Engaging role-playing simulations of summit negotiations
- Intensive group work under realistic pressure and time constraints
- Networking with esteemed participants from all over Europe
- Learning about future career opportunities in the field
- Four days in Kutná Hora spent in the beautiful medieval environment of Jesuit College

HOW TO APPLY?

Send your application before March 15, 2022
to veronika.blablova@amo.cz.

Attach your professional CV, motivation letter and an essay (max. 5,000 characters) on
a) the current state of EU-China relations (including the forecast for 2022) or
b) bilateral relations between China and one European country (including the forecast for 2022).

Shortlisted candidates will be invited for an online interview in the first half of April.

Summer school fee: €500

The fee covers participation fee (€100), accommodation, international and local travel, board and the full program.

We offer a limited number of scholarships for applicants from CEE countries, covering the full summer school fee
